

Message Title: We Ought to be Praying

Text: Luke 18: 1

Date: Sunday, February 03, 2008

Introduction: For some strange and abstract reason, many Christians find this verse hard to follow and obey. They do not always pray and because of that they do often faint.

Tonight's message is very simple: In our Scripture texts, from Verse one to verse thirty eight, there are six examples of prayer. These examples cover the basic gamut of life.

These examples are:

1. Lk. 18: 1. Men ought always to pray.

2. Lk. 18: 3. Women ought always to pray.

3. Lk. 18: 10. Religious people ought always to pray.

4. Lk. 18: 13. Rich people ought always to pray.

5. Lk. 18: 18. Rulers ought always to pray.

6. Lk. 18: 38. Poor people ought always to pray.

*Dr. Jerry Hillenburg
HBCIndy.com
PastorJDH@comcast.net*